Dear parent

We hope your week has gone well. Please read on for this week's news at school....

Midday Supervisory Assistant

We are looking to appoint a Midday Supervisory Assistant (MSA) to help our MSA team at lunchtimes in school. The role will start in September and involves helping the children to eat their lunch, get ready for playtime and to supervise the children whilst playing outside during the lunchtime period. The hours of work are 12-1pm Monday - Friday. If you, or anyone you know, is interested in this role at our wonderful school, please get in touch on 01423-322302 or contact Mrs Jones at sarah.jones@roeliffeschool.co.uk

Pyjamarama Day

Well done and thanks to all our Class 1 and Class 2 children who dressed up in their pyjamas and nightwear at school today to celebrate Pyjamarama 2021. This event supports the work of the BookTrust in ensuring that children's literature is promoted and made widely available to all youngsters. Please use our link below to see photos of our special day - <https://www.roelcliffe.n-yorks.sch.uk/school-blog/pyjamarama-day/>

Mrs Allen

Many thanks to all our staff and families who contributed to Mrs Allen's leaving gift and provided messages for her card. Her gift of gardening vouchers and beautifully crafted card were delivered to her last week and she was very grateful to everyone. We look forward to seeing Mrs Allen when she visits school in the near future.
